Research: Information from Marion Whipple's diaries, Carl Whipple's memories and Sylvia Skelton's letters:

Nancy was born near Albion in Keepville near the Erie Canal. She lived on a farm and taught school for several years before marrying. She met Mark through Will Amidon, who lived near Mosiertown. Will was dating Nancy's sister, Della, and eventually married her. Mark and Nanny married in Keepville at Nancy's home. M & N went to Waterloo, Iowa, to make their home near Mark's brother, Will, but returned to Mosiertown and purchased a 50 acre farm near Mark's mother's home (Mosiertown). They built a 7 room house and "went to farming" (Sylvia W Skelton's letter). Their first child lived only a short time* and Nanny was very ill following his birth. She lost the use of her feet and could not walk. She used a wheel chair (chair remains in the family) and eventually, "by one person walking one side of her and one on the other side and a third person on their hands and knees behind her to flop her toes forward from under her heel, she learned to walk. But her feet were always crippled and if on them too much were very painful." (Letter from daughter, Sylvia Whipple Skelton in Whipple notebook). Raised in the Methodist Church, she became a Baptist after marrying Mark. In 1928, Nancy was caring for a sick neighbor and developed pneumonia from the neighbor. She died very quickly; the neighbor recovered.

* From diary of Amanda Stebbins Whipple: * Bible says 1 day

ASW wrote that Nanny became sick in September of 1885 and was acutely ill until December.

Dec. 12 - "Nannie is having trouble with her toes burning and paining her"

Dec. 18 - "Nan a little better she is trying to walk a little by lifting her feet for her"

Dec. 23 - "Nan gaining slowly"

There was no documentation in this diary of a child born 28 Feb 1883 and dying 1 Mar 1883 but there is a tombstone in Spring Cemetery that gives the date of his death.

See research & death

Nancy was born exactly 70 years after her maternal grandfather Michael Radle, who was born 21 Dec 1794.
